

HARRY BUTLER AWARD

Peter Siggs with President Martin Walker

Peter is a member of Community Philatelic Soc, The Philatelic Society of SA, Postal Stationery & Postal History as well as Encounter Bay Stamp Club
 He has served on the Committee of Community Philatelic Society for many years and has run their very successful auctions. As a member of the Philatelic Society of SA, he has been involved with the project to publish the series of books on the Hand Held Postmarks of south Australia and the Northern Territory. He has been an active member of the Encounter Bay stamp club proving occassional displays.
 The South Australian Philatelic council has hosted a number of congresses when there was no club able to host the event and Peter has played a large part in the running of auctions held at these shows as well as the day to day running of the show.
 In more recent times the Council has held auctions for deceased estates along with other material offered for sale and Peter along with Mike Kovaleff has spent many countless hours in teh assessment, lotting and conducting of the auctions, which have been very successful.
